

ContainerPower Energy Solutions

Canadian Emergency Communications Green Base Station

Overview

The station became a key asset in the global ECHELON network of the US-UK-CAN-AUS-NZ intelligence sharing alliance, with Alert being privy to many secret Soviet communications regarding land-based and sea-based ICBM test launches and many operational military deployments. Established September 1, 1958 Elevation 30 m (100 ft) Country Canada Territory Overview Canadian Forces Station Alert (: Station des Forces canadiennes Alert), often shortened to CFS Alert (SFC Alert), is a intercept facility of the at , in the .

Alert, then in Canada's , was first settled April 9, 1950, when the first staff for the Joint Arctic Weather Station (JAWS) arrived and began construction. Since the beginning of the JAWS proj.

- Cold storage building
- Construction engineering building
- Fire station.

Canadian Emergency Communications Green Base Station

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://www.websparafotografos.es>