

ContainerPower Energy Solutions

The scale of a single new energy storage power station

Overview

Designed with a capacity of 605,000 kilowatts, the project is the largest single energy storage power station under construction in the country. The energy storage station can help send a stable supply of electricity from photovoltaic power facilities to the grid.

The scale of a single new energy storage power station

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://www.websparafotografos.es>